Elk Point's annual Christmas Extravaganza is all set to go on Friday, with a full slate of activities to please the whole family, from the Winter Wonderland Parade to the glittering fireworks finale four hours later.

Even before he joins the parade lining up on Railway Avenue under the direction of the Lions Club members for its 6 p.m. start, Santa will have had his photo taken with the first two-hour lineup of youngsters that begins at 3 p.m. at the Seniors' Recreation Centre, with a second session set for 7 to 9 p.m. Many of the stores will have been offering specials throughout the day, and the big craft and trade show and book fair at F. G. Miller High School was set to open its doors at 5 p.m.

The parade route is the same as for Canada Day, making its way up Main Street to 52 Ave., west past Buckingham House, back south to 50 Ave. where it will go past Heritage Lodge and the hospital before going south to 49 Ave. and east past Fort George Manor before returning to Railway Ave. Following the parade, the tractor-drawn wagons will be all set to haul loads of excited passengers around town, with the EcoCentre as the departure point.

The EcoCentre is also where you can put your name on the Lions Community Christmas Card, drop off your donations for Santas Anonymous and enjoy free hot chocolate provided by the Chamber of Commerce, which may be extra welcome if Friday brings a chilly evening.

Senior high school girls' volleyball teams from the farthest corners of Alberta went for the gold late Saturday afternoon after three days of hard-fought competition at the Alberta Schools Athletic Association (ASAA) 2A Volleyball Provincials hosted by F. G. Miller High School.

Thursday's opening ceremonies saw 12 teams, coming from Calgary, Lacombe, Edmonton, Vermilion, Magrath, Mayerthorpe, Spirit River, Okotoks, Three Hills, Vauxhall, Peace River and Elk Point, march into F. G. Miller's gym, with each player, coach and manager introduced and applauded by a packed crowd of fans.

Randall Kryz led the singing of O Canada before principal Colin Bjorkman welcomed the visitors and thanked the staff, students, sponsors and volunteers who helped to prepare for the huge event.
"It's an exciting time," Mayor Parrish Tung said, "the first time F. G. Miller has hosted a provincial competition." He asked the athletes to thank the coaches and parents for their part in bringing them to the tournament, and told them, "Athletes, it's all about you, these three days of exciting competition you'll never forget."

ASAA representative Michael Vaughan told the crowd that sportsmanship and ethics are "what make school sports special" and noted that FGM vice-principal Darcy Youngmans was part of the ASAA for 10 years, and during that time had initiated a sportsmanship pin which continues to be awarded in provincial competitions. "Sportsmanship and ethical behaviour are as important as winning," he emphasized. "Play hard, play fair, you'll be making memories that last a lifetime."

The ceremonies set the tone for the weekend, which in addition to hard-fought action on the courts also included a gala banquet with music by Shane Larmand and the King Sized Players that according to F. G. Miller's Sherry Bower-Gagne, "had over 200 female athletes rocking!"
Both Magrath High School Pandas and Spirit River Regional Academy Renegades went undefeated through the round robins, Magrath winning every game over Strathcona-Tweedsmuir Spartans, Mayerthorpe

Tigers, Edmonton's J. H. Picard Pumas, Peace River's Glenmary Saints and the host F. G. Miller Crusaders, then defeating Vauxhall Queens in the semifinals. Spirit River scored victories over Vermilion's J. R. Robson Marauders, Calgary Christian High School Cougars, Central Alberta Christian High School Knights, Vauxhall Queens and Three Hills Royals on their way to the semi-finals, where they would score another defeat over the Cougars, who went on to win the bronze over Vauxhall.
The gold medal final saw Magrath take the provincial championship over Spirit River, in a tremendous final game that kept the excitement at fever pitch until the last ball hit the court.

Elks win 6-4 at home

VICKI BROOKER
Review Staff

Back on home ice after a 8 - 0 road trip shutout of Kitscoty Monarchs and defeating Dewberry Mustangs in their own corral by a 6 - 4 margin, Elk Point Elks kept their winning streak alive Friday night with another 6 - 4 victory over Two Hills Longhorns.
The Elks were first on the scoreboard midway through the first period, Myles Whitford scoring off an assist by Derek West, with Harrison Maas adding a second goal less than three minutes later, assisted by Whitford. Two Hills was quick to reply, making the score 2-1 in the Elks' favour at the end of 20 minutes.

Scott Ward increased the Elks' lead with a goal five minutes into the second period, assisted by Devon Moneta, with Chevy Botting adding another, assisted by Jason Kalynchuk, exactly nine minutes later, and Whitford scoring on a power play off assists from Ward and Mark Brodwin with 1:29 on the clock to make it 5 - 1 for the home team.

The Elks' final goal of the game came just before the middle of the third, Conrad Pierce assisted by Botting, but the Longhorns narrowed the gap with three goals in six minutes, bringing the final score in the Elks victory to 6 - 4.
Unfortunately, the winning streak came to a screeching halt Saturday evening when the Elks traveled to Hillmond, SK to take on the so far undefeated Hitmen, and losing by the same 7-1 margin as the Edmonton Oilers suffered at the hands of the Chicago Blackhawks that evening.

Extravaganza

A blazing Main Street bonfire is also scheduled to warm up the festivities. Meanwhile, up at the A. G. Ross Arena, the St. Paul Junior Bs will be taking on the Vermilion Tigers, with a 7 p.m. game start.
Throughout the day and evening, purchases at participating businesses will earn shoppers a draw slip that they can deposit in the big red drum at St. Paul Co-op's Elk Point Branch, for the draws that will be made shortly after 9 p.m. for a great collection of prizes that range from a big popcorn machine to gift certificates redeemable at local businesses.
At 10 p.m., the evening ends with a crowd-pleasing and outstanding fireworks display at the east end of the Iron Horse Trail Staging Area, setting the tone for another tremendous Christmas season in Elk Point.

Elk Point Pee wee Storm

Elk Point Pee wee Girls Storm are enjoying their first year and showing great promise for the future of girls' hockey in Elk Point.

Tier One opponents storm Atom goalie

It was a tough day at the office for Vanden "Super Mario" Moroziuk on Sunday when the Atom Avalanche took on the tier one team from Vermilion and he was peppered with the rubber 51 times; usually coming up with the first and second save, but by the third rebound he was down and out. That's not to say that his defense didn't help out, he was getting great support by Jacey "the Lady" Capjack, Odin "the Wall" Smith, Koby "the Cobra" Warawa, "Bazooka Joey" Cardinal and the fiery Josef "Red" Theriault but the tier one teams are just that much stronger and the Tigers were not going to be caged in this one. Not only did "Super Mario" stop the puck a few times, he's on the score sheet with an assist on the lone goal for the Avalanche by the slippery "Mic Jager" Fontaine. Center man Dean "the Machine" Ockerman is getting a real knack for winning the draw on the faceoff, Brady "Oscar" Hymanyk was having a strong game fore-checking and Landon Malachowski playing his first year of hockey showing us he can skate, understands the game and is a real promising power forward.

If you're a parent of a goalie, you like to see a lot of shots, it is better than facing no shots; it helps them improve, that's the theory anyway; but sometimes it's really tough to watch when the team is struggling to keep up and there's not a mercy rule, the goals just keep on coming. That's when it's hard to watch and you wonder "is it really that beneficial?"

Novice Avalanche

Goalie "Kid Kade" Fontaine had no lack of pucks this past weekend both on Saturday against a tier one team from Bonnyville and on Sunday against a strong team from Cold Lake, but this youngster knows how to battle. So does the defense on this team, they played great. "King Kong Konner" Poitras scoring the only goal in the Novice Avalanche game on Saturday against Bonnyville. Kaleb Flamond, Ethan Castle - Wasson and Seth Morton all doing an awesome job of fore-checking, Cash "CC" Capjack getting the green light heading across the center line with the puck a few times; he's fast enough to get back to his end when needed.

BASSETT
Review Sports

On Sunday the Novice lost a tight one 7 to 6. "King Kong Konner" with a hat trick, Sam "Spiderman" Rogal with two, "St. Nic" Penner with a single, Kady Bourne and Vaughn Ockerman with the helpers. After the game, coach James Capjack really praised the work once again of his defense and goaltending that kept this one close.

Pee wee Avalanche

Not a great drive through the snow-storm to Mallaig on Saturday, but the Pee wee Avalanche was rewarded, winning 6 to 4. "King Cole" Bendixen with two goals, Devon "Naz" Nazarchuk, "Sam I Am" Henderson, Dallas Bristow, and "Hammering Hank" Rogal with one each.

On Sunday there was barely enough lines on the score sheet to list all the goals, in fact only one spare, when the peewees walked all over Glendon here at home. Six goals for "Coast to Coast" Connor Lychak, five for "King Cole" Bendixen, a hat trick for "Lightning Liam" Ludlage, Charlie "Angel" Rogal with two his brother "Hammering Hank" with a goal and three assist, "Naz" with a goal and three assists, big power forward "Danny Boy" Cardinal has a goal too. Down at the other end of the rink, the lonely goalie Ronan "Radar" Poulin was not that busy, but came up big when they tested him a few times.

Bantam Avalanche

Over in St. Paul the Bantam Avalanche played in a tier one tournament this past weekend losing for the first time this year, but it was a good test for the team to see how well they can compete at a higher level.

Goaltender Spenser Hardcastle once again made many timely key saves, not too shabby for a guy who came out of retirement after a few years of not playing in the cage.

Now for the K.A. Campbell quote of the week. "American professional athletes are bilingual; they speak English and profanity. "Last week's answer to: "You miss 100 percent of the shots you never take."- Wayne Gretzky

- It's not too often you find a scientific textbook that was written 156 years ago and is still in print. The book is Gray's Anatomy (not the TV's show), written in 1858 by Henry Gray, a London doctor and surgeon. The book is in its 40th printing and is still used by the medical community today.
- The amount of weight a pregnant woman gains is proportional to her normal body weight. A rough guideline is: if you are underweight (BMI less than 18.5), weight gain should be 28 to 40 lb; normal weight (BMI 18.5-24.9): 25-35 lb; overweight women (BMI 25-29.9): 15-25 lb; obese (BMI 30+): 11-20 lb. However, the final decision on how much weight you should gain still rests with your doctor.
- It's that time of year again when we become more aware of passing on viruses and bacteria to our friends and family. Shaking hands has become so part of everyday life but it can be a source of infection transfer. Ideas suggested as a substitute include fist or elbow bumping or even a bow. Hard to change ingrained habits but it's worth considering.
- We have vaccines to protect against Hepatitis A and B but none for Hepatitis C. Baby Boomers (born from 1945 to 1965) show the greatest rates of Hep. C because they may have been infected in the 70s and 80s when rates of Hep C were high and blood wasn't screened as well as it is today. If you think you've been exposed, you can be tested.

EDITORIAL

Whose job is it, anyway?

The first major snowfall has brought back the same situation that area residents faced at the end of last winter: the snow on the sidewalks along Highway 41.

Last Thursday, signs were set out stating that the sidewalks were closed due to the conditions, which caused some residents to question if this is a situation that will be repeated all winter.

Only Mother Nature knows what the weather is going to do between now and, shall we say March? Obviously, sidewalk conditions will depend on that.

Last March, Mayor Tung responded to a similar question by indicating that the removal of snow from sidewalks along the highway is the duty of the highways department and its contractors. However, he later learned that instead, it's the town's responsibility.

The signs, like those in businesses that are set out to warn of newly-washed floors, are just a way to advise caution and to say, "Be patient, we're working on it."

STAY SAFE!

Put safety on the front burner

Put safety on the front-burner this National Home Fire Safety Week.

November 24 to 30 is National Home Fire Safety Week, and the Canada Safety Council encourages home cooks to put safety on the front burner and prevent cooking fires. According to reports from Canadian fire commissioners, careless cooking remains the most common cause of home fires, and kitchens remain the most common place for home fires to start.

Don't get burned by a cooking fire. Follow the safety tips below to put safety on your front burner:

- Stand by your pan. Don't wander away when you have something on the stove.
- Don't give clutter a home on the range. If it's not a pot or pan, it doesn't belong on the stovetop. Keep paper towels, rags or other combustibles away from the burners, and don't use your oven for storage.
- Order in if you're stewed or half-baked. Cooking while tipsy is asking for trouble.

If a fire ignites, know what to do.

1. If the fire has already spread from the pan, then get out, stay out, and call for help.
2. If the fire is confined to the pan:
 - Put a lid on it. A tight fitting lid clasped on top of the pan should immediately cut off the source of oxygen from the flames.
 - Shut it off and leave the lid on until the pan has cooled completely.
 - Don't add water. Water will spread a grease fire and make things worse.
 - If at first you don't succeed, quit. If you are unable to contain a blaze within 30 seconds, get out as per Step 1.
3. If your clothing catches fire: stop, drop and roll.

Facts about home fires

In 2011, 187 people in Canada died from exposure to smoke, fire or flames.

In 2012-2013, there were at least 995 hospitalizations in Canada due to injuries from fire and flames.

In Alberta in 2012, there were 2,037 residential fires, and where the cause could be determined (excluding arson), 23 per cent were due to cooking.

Parking violations, park assistance, wells abandoned

HERE'S THE NEWS THAT MADE THE HEADLINES OF THE LAKELAND REVIEW AND THE ELK POINT REVIEW FOR THE WEEK OF NOV. 25 IN...

1984

Downtown parking violations were the main concern when RCMP Sgt. Jim Fell and his second-in-command, Doug Huskins, visited town council to review policing and law enforcement in Elk Point, with incorrect parking, parking too close to corners and on the sidewalk noted by council. Christmas shopping hours were set at the chamber of commerce meeting, with Friday, Dec. 21 to be the last night of late shopping until spring, and no overall shopping promotion or draw planned for the pre-Christmas season.

1989

Elk Point Mural Park received assistance the Recreation, Parks and Wildlife Foundation in the form of a $5,000 grant which would be used to get the basic landscaping of the park underway early in 1990. Westmin Resources Limited announced that their oil and gas assets would be taken over by Norcen Energy Resources Limited as of Dec. 1, with area superintendent Allan Frankiw foreseeing no changes in employee or activity levels as a result of the takeover.

1994

Pan Canadian Petroleum at two open house meetings that they planned to double production in the area in the following year, with a major 210-well drilling program projected, and an increased daily production from 8,000 to 20,000 barrels in the Lindbergh and Frog

1999

A grand total of 204 Christmas parcels were shipped off to Operation Christmas Child, thanks to the generosity of F. G. Miller High and Elk Point Elementary School students, the congregations of Elk Point Baptist, United and Christian Community Church, Irma's Avon Glen Mission Church and an unidentified individual donor. Longtime businessman Steve Wolanuk was presented with a plaque from the Elk Point Chamber of Commerce recognizing his contributions to the business community.

2004

PC candidate Ray Danyluk won his reelection to the Alberta legislature by an overwhelming majority, topping the fore count at every one of the 58 polls and collecting 50.9 per cent of all the votes cast. Two community wells in Heinsburg were abandoned and reclaimed after numerous failed attempts to eliminate coliforms in the water, with the County of St. Paul adding a chlorination system in the Heinsburg Community Hall with an outside hydrant to provide water to the community.

2009

Elk Point Visitor Information EcoCentre was nearing completion, with its array of 12 solar panels carefully lifted into place, the exterior complete except for the stain on the upper storey's shingled front, and interior painting and electrical work nearly complete, with other finishing waiting for the installation of the elevator. Founding member Rev. Jim McLellan retired from the Community Advisory Policing Committee, with current chair Deanna Easthope presenting him with a retirement gift, honouring his 15 years of service with the group.

Crusading toward Christmas

DENISE BJORKMAN
F. G. Miller High School

Wow! We are almost at the end of 2014! A whole lot has been happening at F. G. Miller High School, and we are all "a buzz" with our November events!

First, we've had an exceptionally busy November with Boys' Zones Volleyball on November 14 and 15. Hot on the tail of those fast-paced games, we hosted the ASAA 2A Girls Provincials—a really big event for the Crusaders. Twelve teams (including the host team), spent 3 action-packed days of volleyball.

We also had our Spirit Week from November 18 to 21. We started the short week with PJ Day followed by twin/multiple day. As hosts of Provincials, we were all decked out in gold t-shirts and wristbands and celebrated the opening ceremonies. We formally finished off the week with a formal dress (and suit) day. The week also included some games in our common area and a wonderful breakfast on Wednesday provided by our awesome Parent Council. It was great to see all the Crusaders participating and enjoying the week's events.

We are a giving group! Here are our incentives in November and December.

Operation Christmas Child once again flew to children in need. As of printing, our box numbers were down, but the children receiving the fun-filled boxes that we did send will certainly be smiling this Christmas. We really appreciate all the workers at the Baptist Church, our collection center in Elk Point. It really is a great way to get our Crusaders into the spirit of giving.

The Christmas Convoy is also happening right now at F. G. Miller. We encourage all our Crusader families to support the convoy by bringing in non-perishable foods by November 28.

TK's Toys for Tots is accepting gently used stuffed toys for Victims Services up until December 19. Do you have any stuffed toys that need someone to love them? If you have an access in your home, please donate them to us and we will put them in the hands of a child in need. These toys are placed in police cars to give to children in crisis situations.

The Crusaders are also collecting new unwrapped toys for Santas' Anonymous. Finally we are collecting cash donations for Marco, our Sponsor Child in Dominican Republic.

We are saving the best for last this month. We are once again hosting our 21st Annual Crusader Craft Trade/Craft Sale and Scholastic Book Fair in our newly renovated gym. It is going to be a full house with over 60 tables filled with fabulous products for Christmas giving. The evening begins at 5:00 and will close at 10:30. In between count on all sorts of fun! Our PUP group is gift-wrapping, Professor Richer is in the house with her Crazy Crusader Critter Zoo, and we are serving up perogy plates or chili and a bun for supper!

Best of all, you can visit with Clifford the Big Red Dog or, if you are not too frightened, The Grinch! The Travel Club is offering photos to capture the moment! Throughout the night we will be listening to the musical talents of our Crusaders and special guests live onstage in the gym. The Parent Council has organized a Cake Auction which will take place on stage at 8:15 p.m.

The Crusaders hope you help us help others this holiday season. We also hope you can join us as we send out November and welcome December in her cloak of Holiday Cheer!

Santas Anonymous, community card at Eco Centre on Friday

Elk Point Community Lions will be back at the Visitor Information Eco Centre during this year's Extravaganza.

Once again, they will be accepting food and gift donations for Santas Anonymous and names for the Lions Community Christmas Card, and will also be serving free hot

This is also the stop for the wagon rides, so make sure you stop by Friday evening!

IN MEMORIAM

LABINE, Angeline

In loving memory of Angeline LaBine who passed away November 21, 1994.

It's been 20 years that our wife, mother and grandmother has passed and she is missed just as much as that first day she left us.

Our beloved angel watches over and still guides us with her wisdom and faith as she can.

Throughout the years, we have raised our children as if she was still here to help us and now she has become a great-great-grandmother. We know she would be so proud.

Lovingly remembered by your family.

THANK YOU

BOWEN

We, the Bowen families would like to gratefully thank everyone who attended Doug's service, sent condolences, food, flowers, cards and visits.

Thank you to Grace Gardens Funeral Chapel and staff; Carolyn, who went above and beyond her call of duty to help us with decision making at our time of grief. Thank you to Pastor Kelly Sibbey for his beautiful service and Glen Scott for reading the eulogy.

Last, but not least, a very special thank you to Dr. Ramful and staff at the Elk Point Health Care Centre for the wonderful care Doug received there.

We are truly grateful to everyone for your friendship and support, it will always be remembered.

Elk Point 4-H Beef Club weighs in on new season

DALLAS BRISTOW
Club Reporter

We had another successful weight day on Monday, Nov. 17 at Shane and Priscilla Quist's. We had a pot luck dinner that was delicious.

Our beef leader, Kevin Wirsta, gave us a feed demonstration on what to start feeding and final feeding. We're also planning our Christmas gathering.

Stop by our table at the Crusaders Craft Show during Extravaganza on Nov. 28 and have a visit with our members and parents!!!!

Here's a trivia question - the answer will be in the next report. Let's see if you can guess it. What is the 4-H motto?

A junior 4-H member helps as her calf is being weighed and tagged.
